July Worship at Anona

Jack Stephenson

Senior Pastor
595-2581 x224
Jack@anona.com

In the first Sunday of June I preached (in our two traditional and contemporary) on Ephesians 2 where Christ has come to put to death the hostility between us. As we move into July, having covered the “indivisible” portion of our pledge of allegiance, I would like to add the Christian concepts of Liberty and Justice. For good measure I’ve added Mercy. The founding mothers and fathers of our nation had the Christian worldview as a default, assumed, and even unconscious perspective. It was the era of “Christendom” where it was assumed that everyone you met was some sort of Christian.

Our Constitution, Pledge, and Declaration of Independence all come from that worldview.

Today, we don’t assume that world view is shared by everyone. You can’t assume when your talking to the check-out person in a store that they know the Christian values of unity, liberty, justice, and mercy. Around 75% of Americans identify with a Christian denomination, but only around 37% percent are weekly attenders and that can be as low as 22% in some reports. In other words, though the majority identify, active participation in a culture that promotes the principles and character of a Christian may not be there.

So, what does that mean? Can we take for granted that world view? As an example, we might say “I appealed to his sense of justice”. Can we assume the person we’re talking to has a sense of justice? We would assume from that worldview that we are “indivisible”. Are we?

Let’s enjoy the month of July covering the basics that formed our ethos (the characteristic spirit of a culture).

July 1 Freedom (Liberty)

Galatians 5:1 and Luke 4:18

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

These scriptures and dozens more talk about liberty as a central value, even a reason for Christ’s actions. In Luke it is Jesus telling us about his mission. In Galatians it is an admonition to stay free and not slip back into bondage. We are entrapped and ensnared by so much. Do we yet “yearn to breath free”? My prayer for you on this day is that you shake off the bonds that hold you down and bruise you and breath free.

July 8 Justice

Micah 6:8 and Amos 5:24

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

Micah urges us to “do” justice. Amos quotes God saying “Let Justice roll down like waters”. Martin Luther King Jr. quoted that in his “I Have A Dream” speech. Both passages are talking about the sacrifice acceptable to God. Do each of us live by our sense of justice? What is that? How critical to our moral and character nature is that? Is it essential for the Christian life? My prayer for you on this day is that your sense of Justice is your offering to your God.

July 15 Mercy

James 2:13 and Matthew 18:21-24

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

The “Prayer of Humble Access” used by the Methodist, Episcopal, Church of England, and Roman Catholic churches says that “God’s property is always to have mercy”. It is a guiding principle in my life. If we are to be godly, mercy must be constantly before us. Just as First John 4:8 says “The one who does not love does not know God”, James says “those who show not mercy will receive no mercy”. I don’t know about you, but I need mercy. I would like to face a mercy-full God. My prayer for you on this day is that Mercy both flows from you and to you.

July 22 Throw It All

1 Peter 5:6-11

Sermon by: Rev. Richard Landon

From the time of our youth on we tend to juggle a lot: school, friends, sports, dating, and social media give way to spouses, family, and jobs...maybe even church. It can be hard to keep all of this in balance—especially when our stress builds and feels so overwhelming. What worries or concerns you too much right now...what if you could just throw it all away?

July 29 Hope Full or Less

Acts 16:18-19 & 22-25

Sermon by: Rev. Richard Landon

Whether it was an illness, a personal failure, or a broken relationship, we’ve all faced situations that left us feeling hopeless. Moments where we realized we were not in control. Even in the darkest moments, however, God promises us hope. How can we maintain hope in our hopeless moments?

We Are Underway!

I am excited to share that we're moving into our next phase of renovations on our church home. Back in the Spring we were able to make some much-needed technical upgrades for our Traditional and Contemporary worship spaces, and this summer we will begin the physical renovation work in and around our Traditional sanctuary. We will be remodeling the front chancel to be more senior-adult friendly with better rails and steps, a ramp for the lower chancel, much needed carpet replacement, the addition of video screens that fit the Traditional feel of the space, and leveling out some of the sidewalks outside the sanctuary entrance on Indian Rocks Road to make them safer to use.

We are still waiting to receive final clearance to begin so we don't have an official start date yet, but hope to begin construction sometime in mid to late July. Construction is expected to last 45-60 days, so we are busy working on a plan to temporarily re-locate our 8:15 and 11:10 Traditional services over to the Contemporary Sanctuary during the construction.

Stay tuned to our church website, Facebook page, and Sunday morning announcements as we get more information on our construction progress and worship service information!

My senior year of high school I went on a trip with the Florida Conference Youth Department to New York City and Washington D.C. It was an opportunity for us to experience how the United Methodist Church is involved in the world through missions and how the church advocates for social concerns in our nation's capital. Did you know the only non-government building on Capital Hill is owned by the United Methodist Church, it is the denomination's Board of Church and Society. It is right across the street from the Capital and next to the Supreme Court Building.

While in New York City, we had the occasion to see a couple of Broadway Plays. One of them was the musical 1776, which later became a movie. At the time it was exciting to think that we would soon be celebrating the bicentennial (200 years) of the signing of the Declaration of Independence and the birthday of the USA. Where has the time gone? This month we will be celebrating the 242nd anniversary of our freedom.

As Christians, we celebrate another kind of freedom that came to us when God came down and lived among us as Jesus; a freedom from sin and death as we follow and believe in him. But just as we must guard our freedom as a nation, we must also guard our freedom in Christ Jesus. We can often take our freedoms for granted, and our monuments in Washington remind us of the cost and sacrifice needed. The Apostle Paul in the book of Galatians says (chapter 5; 1,13) "For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another." In God's kingdom, our freedom should not be used for our own gain, but for service to one another. Christ set the example, as a servant leader.

So let's celebrate our freedoms this month. We do it on July 4th with fireworks, parades, bands, cookouts, and gathering with family. We do it in the church with worship, prayers, Bible study, singing, and serving. Love one another, as Christ has loved us!
Blessings,

Pastor Gary

Anona Nights Sermon Series - "What's The Catch?"

Temptation is a tricky thing—it always comes with a catch waiting to trip us up. But with temptation all around us, how do we avoid getting caught in its trap? In this series, we'll find that, although there may be a catch to every temptation, there's also always a way out. Temptation isn't from God. Look for the hook to avoid getting caught in temptation's trap. We make better choices when we've had time to think through them ahead of time. When you start to get dragged away by your own desires, look to God for a way out of temptation.

Remember this: So don't be misled, my dear brothers and sisters. Whatever is good and perfect is a gift coming down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.

JAMES 1:16-17

Note: Anona Nights will create sermon series in connection to Student Ministry so that families study the same subject together. Student Ministry will take it deeper on a teenager level and our adult Community Groups take the subject deeper in an adult manner. We're excited for our families to grow together!

Bring your friends and we'll see you Sunday!

We encourage students and families to attend Anona Nights worship together from 5-6pm for the full experience. Then, students have youth group and adults can join a community group!

Youth Sermon Series - "Whats The Catch?"

Temptation is a tricky thing—it always comes with a catch waiting to trip us up. But with temptation all around us, how do we avoid getting caught in its trap? In this series, we'll find that, although there may be a catch to every temptation, there's also always a way out. Temptation isn't from God. Look for the hook to avoid getting caught in temptation's trap. Teen brains often run on impulses, which mean they don't always have access to their best decision making skills. We encourage you to think through all possible outcomes and come up with your own plan of what to do in difficult situations. We make better choices when they've have time to think through them ahead of time. When you start to get dragged away by your own desires, look to God for a way out of temptation. As you begin to make more of your own decisions, keep lines of communication open to those who care about you and want the best for you. What temptations do you see your friends and classmates struggling with. Remember this: So don't be misled, my dear brothers and sisters. Whatever is good and perfect is a gift coming down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.

Summer 2018 is underway for the children and families at ACDC!

We are having a great summer and it's hard to believe it is already half over. The children are busy! Listen to the children's laughter as they play together. Smell the tropical sunscreen aroma as they head off for a day at the pool or outside for Water Play Day. Witness the bonds of friendship that are developing as the children interact and learn more about each other. It is amazing to see the Elementary age children reading to and helping the Preschool children during our planned group activities. Summer is fun and we are blessed to be a part of this ministry that can be present in these simple moments.

Each week as the Elementary campers play, swim, read, take exciting field trips and experience S.T.E.A.M. activities at the Library, we focus on a different character trait. This month, we will learn about, and strengthen our understanding of:

Dates	Themes and trips
July 2	Let's Jump!	Jump Station
July 9	Cold Fun in the Summertime	Countryside Ice Skating
July 16	From a Galaxy, Far, Far Away!	St. Pete Science Center
July 23	Rockin' Anona Talent	Lori Dent Improv
July 30	What I Really, Really Like	Camper's Choice!
Aug 6	Summertime Blues	Bounce House & Water Slide

* Gratitude 1 Chronicles 16:34 We give thanks and show appreciation by honoring our families and nation. We take a minute to say Thank You to the Safekeepers and First Responders in our area.

* Cooperation Ephesians 4:3 It's so easy to understand the benefits and yet sometimes so difficult to willingly cooperate! When we cooperate with each other and with the rules and boundaries set for us, we can have fun and keep ourselves and those around us safe.

* Creativity Psalm 139:14 God created each one of us wonderfully, unique in our gifts and talents. In what ways do we express creativity? What are our gifts and talents? How do we see, and support, the talents of others around us?

Did you know that children are more likely to try different foods if they help prepare them? This month the children will be cooking up some tasty, healthy snacks with our Kohl's Cooks for Kids partnership. Wow, fun and good food!

The School Year is right around the corner! We have a few spots left! We would love to have you join our School Family.

Call the office (593-5437) for more information and to schedule a time to stop by, visit, and enroll.

The next stage of Family Trek is Explore: where children Pre-K to 5th grade explore their relationship with God.

Discover: God was around before the beginning of the Universe. Then, He created the world, the stars, and people like you and me. Ever since the very beginning, God has been with us. He gave us Jesus so we would never be alone. He gave us the Bible so we could always read His Word. And, He gave us the Church, so we could be in community with God's family.

Explore: Each month our younger students explore a life app. For both last month and July, we are exploring confidence: Confidence is living like you believe what God says is true.

This summer's Bible Study is designed for you to drop in when you are in town. Each lesson stand on it's own and we are using the book "Have You Ever Seen a Hearse Pulling a Trailer?" It explores the theme 'You Can't Take It With You'. I'm sure you've heard this advice many times in your life, and yet our materialistic world teaches the opposite, in creative and persuasive ways. Join us on the following dates as we discuss:

Date	Title	Scripture	Facilitator
7/12/18	Chapter 4 – Live Victoriously	Psalms 42	Karen Coultas
7/19/18	Chapter 5 – Live Boldly	Matthew 25: 14-29	Larry Cottrell
7/26/18	Chapter 6 – Live Courageously	Hebrews 10: 23-25	Larry Cottrell
8/2/18	Chapter 7 – Live Triumphantly	Luke 9: 10-17	Gary Thomas

Time: 6:30pm - 7:30pm - Room 110

No Class the first week of July – Happy 4th

Materials: $10, scholarships available

Coming in the Fall:

An introduction to the United Methodist Church. This will be a 5 week class that will explore the Formation of the church, John Wesley and his Theology, and the history and structure of the church. This will be a good opportunity for those from other Christian traditions to come to a greater understanding of the beliefs and how the church operates in order to accomplish the United Methodist Church mission, to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." Look for more information in future Anona Magazines.

Point of View: This will be a 3 week class that explores how we talk about controversial issues where Christians have come to different understandings and interpretation of scripture. In our contentious society, how can we have the mind of Christ, respect others who come to a decision different from our own and talk with grace to one another. The United Methodist church will have a special called General Conference in 2019 to deal with the language about homosexuality in our Book of Discipline. This class will help us to talk about the issues that divide us so that we can be more understanding of others without trying to convince anyone to change their view. Look for more information in future Anona Magazines.

Outreach to Lealman's Adopt-A-Block

For the past few years on the third Saturday morning of every month, a small group from Simply Worship travels to Lealman to help with the Adopt-A-Block Program through the Florida Dream Center. There are many avenues to serve God's people in this community whether at the sandwich table, the gently-used clothing table, community clean-up, or knocking on doors in the community to check in on people and determine if they are in need. We could use more volunteers particularly in the summer when our snowbirds are away. Call Karen Apodaca for further information at 727-656-3507 if you would like to join us on July 21 at 8:45 AM.

How To Get What You Want From Others

Most people who enter a Counselor's office are in emotional distress because of what someone else did or said to them. While it is true that good people have really terrible things happen, just as true is that many people want others to do something else, say other words, or be different in some way.

Well, I can help you stay out of the counselor's office by sharing with you how to get what you want from others. Are you intrigued yet?

Seek Justice: No, not retribution. The word 'justice' is often confused with judgement. The true definition of 'justice' is just behavior or treatment. The word 'just' is defined as being fair. So, justice means behavior that is fair. But, instead of seeking it from others, turn your eyes inward and seek personal behavior that is fair.

Love Mercy: Mercy is defined as compassion or forgiveness. Since everyone you know is a fallible human being, having a compassionate heart and being willing to forgive improves relationships abundantly.

Walk Humbly with God. See others how God sees them, especially those who have caused you hurt. In this way you will see past their actions through to the cause of their behavior.

Freedom is meeting your own emotional needs without reliance on others. You can get what you want from others by removing the need you place on them to provide you what you need. Replace the focus on other people's behavior with focus on your own behavior and you will attain emotional freedom. Do that and I guess I won't see you in my office.

But, if you need me or any of our wonderful professionals, Pastors or Stephen Ministers, we are here for you to help you seek justice, love mercy and walk humbly.

Hands of Healing—Guatemala Medical Mission—Shayla's Story

Almost 17 years in the medical field I can honestly say I have spent my career doing what I love. The core of medicine is universal, to help those in need. Having said that, its availability is not quite as wide spread. The opportunity to touch even a few of the lives outside the reach of modern medical borders was definitely a desire God put on my heart. A few years ago, we were sitting in the contemporary service and the group going to Guatemala with Hands of Healing was being commissioned. I looked at my husband and smiled, he knew too I was being called to serve. At the time we had two young children, ages 1 and 3, so the thought of leaving them to go out of the country was scary. God again provided an opportunity to touch others with the blood pressure clinic. I was able to serve for two years while my children grew; this made my desire to go even stronger. This year I answered God's call and made the trip of a lifetime to serve the people of Guatemala. My heart belongs to God, my family, and medicine. With the support of my family, my first mission trip with my church kept all three in focus.

5th Sunday Special Giving to the Children's Home

Sunday, July 29th is the Celebration of Fifth Sunday, when your Special Offerings go to the Florida United Methodist Children's Home (FUMCH).

About 120 Children live at the 2 Campuses, north of Orlando and east of Tallahassee. 15 from Anona visited FUMCH on March 17th, on the Annual Day on Campis Tour, where we witnessed the amazing support and service our kids receive.

Your Special Gifts support the day to day needs required to provide a safe place for FUMCH kids to live. The Children's Home also provides services such as Foster Care, Community Day Care, Independent Living, and Emergency Shelter care. With all of the On and Off Campus services, your gifts support over 400 children daily.

Your FUMCH Kids Love Anona!!

School Supply Collections throughout July!!

Each year in December, members of Anona generously give to support the children of the Micronesian Community in Dunedin. Some of you may have even met Pastor Tim Barton of First UMC of Dunedin at our Mission Expo just a few months ago. Many people that stopped by Pastor Tim's booth asked how they could help the children, not just at Christmas, but throughout the year and one repeated item that comes across his desk is the request for school supplies.

This month we will be collecting school supplies to help stock those children with the items they need, and hopefully, a nice supply to keep them going throughout the year. Collection bins will be located in the Marketplace, by the long hallway entrance to Traditional and by the Narthex entrance to Contemporary. The most requested items are:

- * Backpacks
- * 1" Three-ring binders
- * Pens (black/blue)
- * Pencils
- * Composition Books (wide & college ruled)
- * Spiral Notebooks (wide & college ruled)

In December we had 68 pre-school and school aged children on the list from the Micronesian Community. Some of you may ask whether the kids are required to carry clear backpacks? Each school has different rules and there is no "across the board" regulation at this time on type of backpacks.

I would like to thank you for your generosity, for your giving spirit. For always stepping up when it comes to Missions. Anona is able to support so many, to reach out and lift up those in the church and in the community, thanks to you.

At the same time as we are collecting for the Micronesian Children, our VBS will also be collecting school supplies as part of their mission for the month of July as well. VBS will be supporting Seminole Middle School with supplies for those in need.

It's Great To Be Grand (Grandparents Group)—Tuesdays at 10:30am

Many grandparents are finding themselves in high level support roles, helping their children raise their own children. Grandparents are becoming more and more involved in their grandchildren's lives: daycare, primary caregivers, transporters, you name it, grandparents do it. This group is a place for grandparents to share in their joy and concerns about these roles while sharing ideas and resources. Want to know more about this group, contact Lee McAuliffe 224-501-5809 or Sandy O'Bryant 727-688-2612. Come experience support and blessings, Tuesdays at 10:30 in the youth room.

Hands of Praise—Tuesdays at 5:30pm

The Hands of Praise choir provides people with a visual opportunity to feel new depths in the messages of Contemporary and Traditional songs during worship. The vision of Hands of Praise is three-fold: loving God by praising God with our hands; loving one another as we accept diversity within our church and the world; and serving others as we go into the community sharing the love of God through the songs. Our Scripture is taken from Psalm 63:4, "I will praise You as long as I live, and in Your Name I will lift up my hands." Contact Nancy Wooten, 727-804-1375, for more information.

Sign Language Class—Tuesdays at 6pm

Have you ever wanted to learn another language? Well, now is your opportunity! A new class of American Sign Language started this year! The instructors are Shayla and Nancy. For more information or to register call Nancy Wooten, 727-804-1375.

Are you living too much secularly and not enough spiritually? Matthew 6:33 says: "...seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Do you want to live more spiritually through the presence of God in your thoughts, actions, deeds, words and relationships? First, and immediately, pray more. Ask God to show Himself in all your life today. Then seek Him throughout the events and people He puts in your life. He is present in places where you least expect to find Him. Then, daily live through God's word. Read your Bible and doggedly apply the message(s) that show up in ways that will glorify Him. Lastly, take the risk and seek relationships with the people God puts in your life through your work, church and family. They are not there by accident. Live more authentically with Jesus followers who daily seek to experience God's transforming presence in their lives. Will you lead a secular or a spiritual life? The choice is yours. - Jim Boesch, a certified men's ministry specialist and a deployed staff member of the General Commission on UM Men jimboesch68@gmail.com.

Membership

Membership at Anona is about worshipping, growing, serving and living life together in community. We believe that discipleship is a life-long journey of self-examination and continuous growth, leading to a Christ-like life that serves others and furthers God's Kingdom.

Simply, does worship here connect you with God? Is this a place where you can grow spiritually? Finally, are you moved to make a difference in the world with a servant heart? There are no mandatory classes. There are no minimums in attendance or giving. It is a community of the willing. Saying you want to be a member is like walking through the front door of a house you want to live in.

Membership vows are usually "corporate" in nature where those wishing to join, come forward during worship and vow together with the witness and support of the congregation. For those who do not want to be in front of people in such a public way, vows can be taken privately. Some individuals and families prefer private baptism as well. We are willing to do what is most comfortable for you as you make your commitment to Christ and Christ's church.

We invite our seasonal residents into Affiliate and Associate membership at Anona! Affiliates are members of another United Methodist Church who wish to connect with the life, ministry, and watch-care of our congregation. Associates are members of another Christian denomination who wish to connect with us while retaining their current denominational affiliation.

What is "Insight to Anona?"

We offer "Insight to Anona" classes to those wishing to join or just seeking more information about our church. We meet for an informal time of getting to know each other, while learning more about Anona's history, mission and culture. People leave knowing more about our Bible study classes, book studies, small groups, mission partners and service opportunities, both inside and outside the walls of our church. In summary, it helps you see where you want to get connected as we worship, grow, serve and live life together in Christ!

Insight usually lasts 1-2 hours depending on the number of people and how we move through the tour. If those dates aren't convenient, Sandy Drugash is happy to meet privately at a time that's good for you. Our next Insight to Anona is Sunday, July 8th at 12:30pm and Wednesday, July 11th at 10:30am in the Front Office (off of the Fellowship Area). Our next Membership Sunday is July 29th at all of our worship services. Sandy is looking forward to hearing from you! sandy@anona.com or phone 595-2581 x 228.

Communications

In June, we handed out white information update cards to those attending services. This is something we will begin doing semi-annually. For this update, we asked you to designate one adult family member to be the primary contact for contribution (giving) communications. We needed that person's name, email, street address, and phone numbers. If you were not able to attend services on one of those weeks, we ask that you email the same information requested above to our Financial Secretary, Eileen Fynan: eileen@anona.com.

This updated information will be useful as we open up new channels of communication and give the ability for you to see your church profile at your convenience online! You will be able to update your address, view the groups you belong to, and view your contribution history.

Stephen Ministry at Anona

Learning to Pray

"Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and then thank Him for all He has done. Then you will experience God's peace which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:6-8) These words from the Bible have surely helped me in my journey as I serve in Stephen Ministry.

When I became a Stephen Minister, I knew I was never very good at public speaking, and I didn't want to make a fool of myself as I prayed.

I thought my words had to be "just so" and my thoughts all planned. As I prayed with my first Care Receiver, I struggled to make it "sound" just right.

Then, during our devotion times, I realized the simple prayers which followed the lesson each day were just talking to God. Then I helped in FX, and what I was teaching the children was what I needed to see: "Prayer is talking with God."

So, in my next meeting with my Care Receiver I asked her what she wanted to pray about. Suddenly the true needs of her heart poured out. She prayed aloud, and I heard HER talk with God. God was teaching me to pray.

Now I do pray before we meet. I ask for compassion, listening skills and to be empathetic to her needs. Our meetings are open, honest and we both feel very close to God as we talk with God together.

As promised in the scripture above, we have a real sense of God's peace.

If you need the fellowship of prayer in your life, why not call the church and ask for a Stephen Minister with whom you can share your concerns.

Caring for our Anona Congregation

by Gary Thomas – Director of Pastoral Care; 585-2581 ext 225

Each week we visit in area hospitals, rehab centers, and call on persons who are unable to come to Church. We have one of the best church outreach and support ministries in the country and it's because we have many great individuals who volunteer their time on one of our three teams; Hospital Care Team, Rehab Care Team, and our Outbound Care Team. We don't want to miss anyone who is facing one of these situations, so help keep us informed by calling the church office at 595-2581 and pass the word along. If you receive the recorded message, please enter 225 and follow the prompts to leave a message. This extension is monitored three times a day so that we may respond quickly with one of our teams. Have a safe and healthy summer.
