March Worship at Anona

Jack Stephenson

Senior Pastor
595-2581 x224
Jack@anona.com

The month of March brings us up to and almost at Easter, but Easter this month is April first. The devotional we are using (still time to get one, check website or ask someone Sunday morning) is by N.T. Wright, who is the Chair of New Testament at the University of St. Andrews, and was a bishop of the Church of England. He is a spiritual heavyweight.

Having covered the big areas of Temptation and Transfiguration in the latter part of February (or the first part of Lent), we now move on to the Kingdom, Forgiveness, and Judgement before encountering Holy Week.

We will be reading the entirety of the book of Matthew along with selected Psalms. The vision for our Lenten experience is that from the beginning of Lent (Ash Wednesday) to its conclusion at Easter, your spirit connects with the living God in ways that will be relevant to your own life. That was Bishop Wright's hope for this Lenten series.

I think that's my hope for Church in general. It should always be relevant to your life. The gospel is, and always has been for "every day". It is your "go to", constantly available, constantly used, consistently useful and helpful for living "every day". That's why Dr. Wright entitled his book that goes with this study "Lent for Everyone".

Let this Lent be that for you. A time of refreshing your use of the gospel every day. Like gas in a car or electricity for a lamp, it is meant to give up power to run on every day.

March 4 The Kingdom of Heaven is Like...

Matthew 13:31-33; 44-46

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

A grain of mustard seed, leaven in a loaf, treasure hidden in a field, a pearl of great price. If the Kingdom, such an invisible and seemingly small part of our lives, is like "this", then... the little things you do will change lives, make things different, be a part of something much bigger than yourself.

March 11 Forgiveness... Seventy Times Seven

Matthew 18:21-35

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

The three levels of this parable are mind blowing and spirit freeing. 1. I'm still angry about what you did last week: How do we free ourselves from the teeth gritting, loss of sleep life. 2. We have closed ourselves off. 3. The Year of Jubilee and its lifestyle is ancient. This seventy times seven thing goes way back.

March 18 Judgement

Matthew 25:14-30

Sermon by: Dr. John M. Stephenson

The story again of the master going away and coming back. Another story that doesn't end well. This time it's about what the Master has invested in us. All that was poured into us we multiply or we don't fit the kingdom of heaven. This is one I'm wrestling with. This will be a hard one to both preach and hear.

March 25 Who is This? - PALM SUNDAY

Matthew 21:1-11

Sermon by: Rev. Richard Landon

Jesus? Lord? King? Son of David? Prophet? It's Palm Sunday and people throughout Jerusalem were wondering, "Who is this?" It was a good question then, and it's a good question now. How we answer that question...it really matters.

See You Sunday,

I have always admired people who project a calm, peaceful presence in the midst of chaos. They have a way of bringing a sense of peace to all around them as they move in and out of the noisy, messy, turbulent and stressful situation in which they find themselves. I have seen it in people in the midst of some accident as well as people in the midst of their daily work. The people I have known who have this ability or gift also have a deep spiritual faith.

Jesus was often in crowds of people, teaching, preaching, healing and in the midst of his ministry, people were pressing in, wanting to touch him, wanting to hear him, wanting to be in his presence. The disciples were often trying to give him room and space, trying to keep people away. Jesus had a strong spiritual connection to his Father, and would often "withdraw" from the crowds to pray. Mark's gospel lists numerous occasions when Jesus would go off alone, or with his disciples to find solitude and commune with God. Jesus continually sought God's wisdom, God's strength and God's peace in his life and he was intentional about taking the time to grow deeper.

Do you wish you had more peace in your life? Do you find yourself worried, and fretting over an endless number of situations you or your family face? Do you feel you are facing the noisy, messy, turbulent and stressful world with no end in sight? Jesus said, (John 16:33) "I've said these things to you so that you will have peace in me. In the world you have distress. But be encouraged! I have conquered the world." Follow Jesus example; withdraw to seek God's wisdom, strength and peace. Make worship a part your spiritual habit, Be in solitude to talk (pray) and listen for God. Be intentional about taking the time to grow deeper. Peace and Blessings!

It's Easter is one month away...just 31 days.

We're in the midst of Lent, which started on Ash Wednesday (that happened to be Valentine's Day this year). Lent is normally 40 days long plus Sundays making it about six weeks in total. It offers us the opportunity to use that time to reflect on our life and priorities in light of what Christ did for us at the end of this season on Easter Sunday. With 31 days left in Lent...31 days to Easter, I'm wondering what can we do in that time?

Lent isn't something to mix up with something like New Year's resolutions. Many times, when we do New Year's resolutions, they're about us... getting ourselves in shape, focusing on our finances, or quitting a bad habit. Lent is different. It's about honoring Christ by changing the pattern of our lives in ways that seek to draw us closer to him. What can we do in 31 days to honor Christ with our life?

Throughout the centuries people have used the time between Ash Wednesday and Easter to embrace new faith practices or habits. They did things like fasting (abstaining from something to remind them of their dependence on God), reading the bible, developing a prayer routine, doing acts of service or practicing rest (that doesn't mean couch potato). What would happen if we actually did this as a church? Not just a few of us taking a class, but all of us practicing our faith deliberately in some new or different ways for the next 31 days for the purpose of drawing close to and honoring Christ. What might happen? What might change?

I don't know the answer to those questions, but I do know that when we seek to draw close to God, God is honored and something changes. It might be so subtle as to be unnoticeable or so dramatic as to be impossible to miss, but something changes and the change is for the good. I would love that to happen to each one of us and to our church as a community. If you're ready to give 31 days, I invite you to visit our Facebook page (facebook.com/anonachurch) every day in March. Each day I will post a way for you to practice your faith as we all seek to draw close to Christ. What can we do in 31 days? Let's find out together!

March 4

Getting Even or Giving Mercy

Matthew 18:21-35

You have heard it said, "An eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth" (Matthew 5:38). That quick quote from Jesus actually comes from Exodus 21:24, which doesn't stop there...it also includes a lot more, "life for life, hand for hand, foot for foot, burn for burn, wound for wound"...you get the idea. Justice or mercy...which one applies to us?

March 11

The Consequences of Character

Matthew 23:37-39

We often look at the nice words of Jesus and avoid the moments where he is a bit more on the confrontational side...the places where we might even say he appears quite rude. In fact, there are moments where he sounds more like a Marine drill sergeant than a grace-filled Savior. This week we look at the Drill Sergeant Savior side of Jesus.

March 18

Empowered for Something More

Matthew 25:14-30

When we think back over the course of our lives, we can often find at least one or two people that helped us take a step up or at least forward. We can think of people that trusted us with something important, even when we didn't feel ready for the responsibility. It's called empowerment, and it's crucial to the Christian journey.

March 25

Who is This?

Matthew 21:1-11

Jesus? Lord? King? Son of David? Prophet? It's Palm Sunday and people throughout Jerusalem were wondering, "Who is this?" It was a good question then, and it's a good question now. How we answer that question...it really matters.

Youth Sermon Series - "Back To Life"

IWe can have peace during hard times. Even as adults, it can be tough to give context to our pain. But because of Jesus' death and resurrection, we have hope for a better tomorrow, regardless of how dark today feels. We'll talk to students about pain—their personal pain or the general suffering throughout the world. Then ask them how what Jesus did on the cross affects that pain. There can always be peace in difficult times... we just have to look for it.

Jesus is God's Son, and because of that we can believe in what he teaches. During His time on Earth, Jesus faced lots of haters. Many questioned He was who He said He was—God's Son. But Jesus backed up His words with action. Because of the cross, we can believe what Jesus says— all of it. Is there something Jesus said that's hard for you to believe? Sometimes doubts can spur us on to the greatest growth in our faith when we rely on Jesus to bring us Back To Life with His again.

FAMILY FUN with a PURPOSE

9:30 am in the Anona Theater

The Family Experience (FX) is a worship experience that is centered on a KEY monthly Bible verse. The weekly message is taught through Media, Creative Drama, Engaging Characters and Worship time.

The GOAL of FX is to provide a consistent environment where leaders, parents and kids are learning. This helps families to connect what they hear at church with what is happening at home.

God chose PEACE through His Son, Jesus. When Jesus died and then rose from the dead, He paid the price for everything that was wrong and unfair in this world. Because of Jesus, we can have peace. We don't have to get even. Instead, we can reflect the character of Christ by caring for others and making peace.

PEACE

Proving you care more about each other than winning an argument

So let us do all we can to live in peace. And let us work hard to build up one another.

Conscious Discipline® The Power of Love ... Seeing the Best in Others

As Easter approaches and we turn our focus toward the forgiveness and new life God offers to us, we see how important it is to exercise the Power of Love every day -- God's love, flowing through us, extended to others in the upsets and chaos of everyday life. The Power of Love enables us to see beyond the moment, to utilize the skill of Positive Intent, and see the best in others.

When we change our perception first, we are able to approach moments of upset or chaos in a different way. Choose to pause, breath, and look with the eyes of compassion and see the situation differently. We can see the child not as someone intending to be hurtful, but as someone calling for help. When we offer love and compassion in the midst of upsets, opposition and aggression lose their control and we have the opportunity to model and teach skills that promote self-regulation and responsibility. Isn't that what we want to see nurtured in all of God's children? It really does start in the heart! To learn more, visit www.consciousdiscipline.com.

Our Community Connection mission project for the month of March is Pause for PAWS. The children and families will collect supplies for our animal friends at the Tampa Bay SPCA. A tangible way for children to connect what they learn in school to the real world in which they live. Extending love to all of God's creatures is an expression of the values of Responsibility and Compassion which we learn through the Power Love and the Skill of Positive Intent.

We still have a few openings for in our program for the 2018/2019 school year. Call the office, 593.KIDS, and set up a time to come in and see the program in action. We are happy to show you all we offer and find the perfect way we can partner with your family.

“THE UNTETHERED SOUL: THE JOURNEY BEYOND YOURSELF”

Who are you? In this remarkable book, author and spiritual guide Michael Singer explores this fundamental question, seeking the very root of consciousness in order to help readers learn how to dwell in the present moment. Written in an engaging and uncomplicated voice, this book will open readers up to the radical and powerful experience of simply being themselves. What would it be like to be free from limitations and transcend boundaries? What can you do each day to find this kind of inner peace and freedom? The Untethered Soul offers a simple, profoundly intuitive answer to these questions. Whether this is your first exploration of the inner self or you’ve devoted your life to the inward journey, this book will transform your relationship with yourself and the world around you. The author begins by walking you through your relationship with your thoughts and emotions, helping you free yourself from the habitual and negative patterns that limit your consciousness. God in Your Coffee Cup

How many days do you grab your coffee and you're on the run? Today, I am going to share the wisdom with you of replacing coffee with God in your morning cup.

Where coffee is nervous energy, God is serene stamina. Where coffee weakens your bones, God strengthens your resolve. Where many say, "I can't wait for the coffee to be ready," in God we are encouraged to wait. Why?

The Creator of the Universe has perfect timing. Though we try, we cannot rush into our future. When we try, we are filled with anxiety and are discontent. A return to health, a relationship that is being mended, the grieving process, and our hopes for the future all seem to move slower than desired. But, God has you and your experience is happening in the perfect timing. Do you think I'm kidding?

It may offer you little comfort at this moment to tell you your pain is slow-going and in perfect timing in the same breath. However, the waiting period is a time of learning and of strengthening so put your trust in God to receive the courage that will sustain you. And in your coffee cup?

I have another suggestion for what to put in your coffee cup besides the "go-juice" that causes excitability, nervousness, and impatience. This ingredient is the key to all questions and concerns.

Peace and Patience,
Dina Meitner, LCSW

MUSIC HISTORY: The Glass Harmonica was very popular in the eighteenth century. It is a set of glasses of different sizes that are rubbed on the rims by wet fingers to produce a gentle, ethereal sound. It was invented by the American inventor and statesman Benjamin Franklin. Mozart was so entranced with its sound that he composed works for it, including Adagio (K. 356, written in 1791) which was performed by Gluck with success when he visited London.

March Mission Drive—Collection of Cleaning Supplies

180 baskets of cleaning supplies. That's how many home dedications Anona has provided a basket of cleaning supplies for hardworking, deserving families in Pinellas County. And 25 of those in just the past 6 months.

In March, Anona will hold its next Habitat Cleaning Supply Collection for Habitat Homeowners. In the Fellowship Area, we will have a poster with items you can select from starting on March 3rd. Drop off baskets will be at each service, the Marketplace and the Fellowship Area, through March 31st. We're looking for such items as "Windex", "Fantastic", Trash Bags, Paper Towels, etc.

The baskets have been loved by the Families, as this is one less expense for them as they move in.

Let's Build (and help Clean)!! Our next build is: March 10th

Mission Expo—March 4, 9AM-12:30PM

Come out and join us for the Mission Expo, Sunday, March 4th from 9am – 12:30pm in the Fellowship Area. There will be opportunities to meet many of our new Mission Partners as well as those we have faithfully supported throughout the years. Want a preview? Head over to anona.com/missions to find a map of the Expo as well as a vendor list with links to their websites!

When you visit the Expo, pick up a passport and stop by each mission table to get a stamp. Enter your completed passport in a drawing to win a prize. Grand prize will include a $500 donation to the Mission Partner of your choice! Need not be present to win. Stop by the Mission Team table, talk to one of the many members of the Anona Mission Team, pick up the latest mission brochure, and visit our prayer station.

Many Mission Partners will have volunteer opportunities available at their tables. Sign up to volunteer at Habitat for Humanity, sort food with Stamp out Hunger (RCS), read to a child through Panther Pals reading program, just to name a few. Interested in what goes on behind the scenes? Talk to one of our Youth and find out how they are growing with the church through missions. Think you are too young/old, don't have enough time for missions? There is a place for you! For more information about the Expo, please contact a mission team member at missions@anona.com.

Homeless Empowerment Program

One of our mission partners, Homeless Empowerment Program (aka HEP) is located on an sprawling 8-acre campus in Clearwater. This program serves homeless and at-risk veterans, families, and single men and women in our community. Residents receive a broad range of services intended to consider and address the needs of the whole person (physical, mental, and spiritual needs). Roughly 1/3 of the residents are the brave men and women who have served our country and have needs specific to them. Families receive housing and other support systems to reduce negative impact on them, especially the children. Single residents have access to three stages of housing including short-term emergency, moderate-term transitional and long-term permanent supportive housing. All services are geared toward eventual self-sufficiency. Residents can access, medical, dental and mental health services provided by HEP and also through their many community partners. A vast array of volunteer opportunities are available at HEP including providing professional services, thrift store help, maintenance/landscaping, food donation pickups, medical services, office work, kitchen (serving meals, food prep, cleaning), work in the learning center, and assistance directly to the veterans. It would be impossible to describe here all of the support and services HEP provides to its residents and, as a result, to our community at large, but more information can be found on their wonderful website at <https://www.hepempowers.org/>

NEXT BUILD is: March 10th
8:00AM - 12:00PM

Our Scripture is taken from Psalm 63:4, "I will praise You as long as I live, and in Your Name I will lift up my hands." Contact Nancy Wooten, 727-804-1375, for more information.

Foolish and Impatient Men

"Wait for the Lord. Be strong and don't lose hope. Wait for the Lord." Psalm 27:14, NIV

How impatient we as men can be in today's world of immediate gratification. Ever since we were toddlers anticipating the arrival of Santa Claus to bring us lots of goodies, we grew up expecting we have to have the things we want now and then. A fancy set of wheels our parents could never have afforded back when they were younger. Season tickets to a professional sport. Not those cheap seats at the minors or spring training games. A state of the art home with all of the upgrades.

Not only did David have times where he impatiently waited upon the Lord to help him get through his trials and tribulations with King Saul, David's son as King Solomon wrote many of the proverbs comparing the patience of men who are wise to the impatience of those who think and act foolishly.

The Book of Proverbs can be a great training manual for young men starting out in life and even those older men who find themselves bemoaning the things they've lost or missed out on. There are proverbs for helping us endure relationships, investing time and money wisely, pursuing healthy work habits and avoiding laziness. There are proverbs dealing with anger, drunkenness, profanity, lying and deceit, and overcoming weakness, loss, and grief.

A man who reads these Proverbs and takes them to heart will be a different and wiser man each time he encounters today's temptations and challenges of daily living. When God told Solomon he could have anything he wanted, Solomon did not say peace, treasures, an important position, a palace, or wine and women. He said, just give me wisdom. In the end, because of the wisdom God gave him, Solomon acquired all those other things he never asked for.

According to James, the Apostle, true wisdom comes from God. James 3: 13-18 13 If you are wise and understand God's ways, prove it by living an honorable life, doing good works with the humility that comes from wisdom. 14 But if you are bitterly jealous and there is selfish ambition in your heart, don't cover up the truth with boasting and lying. 15 For jealousy and selfishness are not God's kind of wisdom. Such things are earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. 16 For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind."

Anona's Men's Bible study on Monday evenings at 7 – 8 pm is continuing studying the letters of Apostle Paul.

All Pro Dads (Richard Landon) – Visit www.allprodad.com to find a ton of info for men from a parenting, marriage, and character perspective as well as info about the All Pro Dads breakfast program. Men can also subscribe to receive daily advice and inspiration. Anona's All Pro Dads has programs are currently in: Ridgecrest, Seminole Middle, Anona Elementary, Orange Grove Elementary, Seminole Elementary, and Bauder Elementary. The successes come in the moments where they witness connections between dads and their kids. Richard, like most dads, likes to see kids faces light up in the "I'm proud of you because..." moment. They realize their dads see them doing good things, becoming good people, helping others, etc. To learn more about All Pro Dads, contact the church office at 727-595-2581.

Tuesday's Men's Breakfast Group – Before Christmas, the church collected bedding, pillows, and other donations for the Florida Methodist Children's Home and the Tuesday Men's group helped the cause by purchasing a couple hundred Teddy Bears. A handful of men and their wives organized and bagged the donated items, and the men, John Lundahl, Frank Burkett, and Chet Klinger loaded up a minivan with the bedding and a towing wagon with the Teddy bears and drove the goodies to the Children Home. The Children's Home staff was very appreciative of this and the many other things Anona UMC has done to help their mission grow over the years.

Membership

Membership at Anona is about worshipping, growing, serving and living life together in community. We believe that discipleship is a life-long journey of self-examination and continuous growth, leading to a Christ-like life that serves others and furthers God's Kingdom.

Simply, does worship here connect you with God? Is this a place where you can grow spiritually? Finally, are you moved to make a difference in the world with a servant heart? There are no mandatory classes. There are no minimums in attendance or giving. It is a community of the willing. Saying you want to be a member is like walking through the front door of a house you want to live in.

Membership vows are usually "corporate" in nature where those wishing to join, come forward during worship and vow together with the witness and support of the congregation. For those who do not want to be in front of people in such a public way, vows can be taken privately. Some individuals and families prefer private baptism as well. We are willing to do what is most comfortable for you as you make your commitment to Christ and Christ's church.

We invite our seasonal residents into Affiliate and Associate membership at Anona! Affiliates are members of another United Methodist Church who wish to connect with the life, ministry, and watch-care of our congregation. Associates are members of another Christian denomination who wish to connect with us while retaining their current denominational affiliation.

What is "Insight to Anona?"

We offer "Insight to Anona" classes to those wishing to join or just seeking more information about our church. We meet for an informal time of getting to know each other, while learning more about Anona's history, mission and culture. People leave knowing more about our Bible study classes, book studies, small groups, mission partners and service opportunities, both inside and outside the walls of our church. In summary, it helps you see where you want to get connected as we worship, grow, serve and live life together in Christ!

Insight usually lasts 1-2 hours depending on the number of people and how we move through the tour. If those dates aren't convenient, Sandy Drugash is happy to meet privately at a time that's good for you. Our next Insight to Anona is Wednesday, March 7th at 10:30am OR Sunday, March 11th at 12:30 pm in the Front Office (off of the Fellowship Area). Our next Membership Sunday is March 25th at all of our worship services. Sandy is looking forward to hearing from you! sandy@anona.com or phone 595-2581 x 228.

New opportunities to serve in creative ways are opening up on our church campus. As part of our Worship Technology upgrades in the first week of March, we are relaunching our video ministry in a BIG way!

Live Worship Video Opportunities

We will have opportunities to be involved in a variety of positions, from operating cameras to switching, operating graphics and directing. We will be live streaming our services in the fall, and have opportunities for people to host the chat room as well!

Video Drama Opportunities

A broader creative option: We will be taking our new cameras out into the field to create narrative content to support our various ministries. We would need team members who want to act, write scripts, design sets, direct, operate video, lighting and sound. Post Production can be a separate team, doing the editing, effects and music!

What is Required?

Worship Video serves once every three weeks. All opportunities will have training provided, so all you need is a passion to serve and learn new skills! Video drama will be on a per-event basis, but we hope to be producing at least one new narrative each month.

If you want to know more about these new opportunities, email Jonathan Dennison: jonathan@anona.com

Stephen Ministry at Anona

What an Opportunity!

A new year has begun! This reminds me of times when I have started something new, a vacation trip, a new Bible study to lead, a new life to live with the woman of my dreams, entering the unknown of working through Stephen Ministry with a new person in need. Each event brings apprehension of the unknown yet also excitement of what can be.

My good friend Bill frequently reminds me of the simplicity of things. Black, white, good, bad...things happen, so absorb the blows and move on. Most of us take the ebb and flow of daily life and know that "this is life." But life is not always so clear cut. We encounter dark areas where the problems seem insurmountable, and the answers just beyond our reach. How can we cope with the loss of a loved one or overwhelming financial issues or health concerns?

This is exactly the time and place where a Stephen Minister is most valuable. A Stephen Minister will walk right beside you through this valley. All sorts of people may at times find themselves in this dark place: women, men, young, old, people with an apparent strong faith and those with none. It really doesn't matter. What does matter is that Jesus has told us that trials and tribulations WILL come but that He will be with us until the very end of the ages, and beyond.

Fortunately, I have found, through a growing faith and application of what I have learned through Stephen Ministry, that we have nothing to fear, no matter what the outcome. When I hear what my colleagues have experienced or get their advice on how to approach a difficult situation to help someone, I have a new opportunity, not only to pray for my Care Receiver, but to listen to his troubles and to help him see a solution.

Each of us has an ability to let the faith we learn about each Sunday go to work within us. There are simple, direct ways to see life, and there are times to reach out and live our faith in helping others. It's a new year to take action. If you believe you might benefit from the confidential, one-on-one care and support of a Stephen Minister, please call the church office. Stephen Ministers are always available to walk along with you.

Caring for our Anona Congregation

by Gary Thomas – Director of Pastoral Care; 585-2581 ext 225

The Anona Memorial Garden was established to provide a final resting place for the cremated remains of church members. The Garden allows for interment of ashes directly into the soil without containers, which means there is unlimited usage available. This is both ecologically sound as well as theologically appropriate. A donation of $200 is recommended for those that wish this alternative to traditional burial, which includes a leaf on the Memorial Tree with a rose to signify your ashes have been placed in the Garden. Forms are available in the church office. Questions can be directed to Gary Thomas at the extension above or gary@anona.com.

Heath Care Team—March is National Nutrition Month

For 2018 Theme: "Go Further with Food". According to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics eating healthier doesn't have to be complicated. To go further with food, A.N.D. suggests limiting "to go" or highly prepared food. Read food labels: look for sodium, trans or saturated fats & added sugar, e.g., "no salt added" vs regular green beans. A 1/3 cup serving has 0 mg sodium vs. 200 mg—a whopping difference! Sundays during March take advantage of the healthier food choices after each service.
